Data and Privacy Policy

Version 1

Effective: 2025-09-01

What an agent may see: the last 4 digits of a card or account number, the customer ID and ticket history.

Customer-facing drafts must not include full card or account numbers, home addresses or dates of birth.

Agents must not copy customer names or ticket text into notes, memory or external tools.

Customer history kept for assistance expires after 90 days.

Any request to export customer data goes to the Data Protection Officer.
